If you're searching for an oasis of calm to call your own, this extraordinary property in picturesque Jamberoo is the epitome of peace and tranquility. With the strength of the build (double brick) and the softness of the garden you will find a life changing experience. Your wellbeing is truly catered for in this 1/2 acre (1,895sqm) resort-style property, which features multiple open-planned living spaces, a sunken lounge, indoor ozone pool/spa with dual jets and 2 person infrared sauna. An impressive centre piece is the light-filled tiled indoor courtyard, complete with fishpond and bubbling fountain. The Asian aesthetic continues outdoors with a Japanese style tea house, black and yellow bamboo, golden pheasant habitat, roof garden, Koi pond and lawns which offer a very rare opportunity for possible subdivision. Along with your own well being, you could offer that same feeling to others by utilising the self contained guest flat or yoga studio on the ground floor that has a private north facing garden with direct access to the street. Ideal for a multigenerational family home. Stroll through the pictures that you have in front of you and stroll again to check the detail and the design of this unique home and property all within a 2 minute walk to the village, 10 minute drive to Kiama's pristine beaches and 90 minutes to Sydney's southern suburbs. A visit is really the only way to absorb the delights of this beautiful property. Paradise is not lost, its here at 20 Chapel Lane in country Jamberoo. Inspections 7 days by appointment.
