THE PROPERTYBoasting a private, no through road positioning this light filled Lysterfield retreat offers a combination of low maintenance allure and abundant interiors tailored to the growing family. Beyond the home's formal entry, discover a generously designed living area flanked by a spacious, dedicated home office perfectly suited toward those working or studying from home. Anchored at the heart of the home is a sleek chef's kitchen complete with island countertop & a myriad of stainless appliances offering an effortless culinary experience to the adjoining meals & family space. Parents are well tended to with a sizable master domain offering walk-in robe storage & en-suite bathroom, whilst three further robed bedrooms and a main bathroom with some updates round out the versatile accommodation configuration. Spilling through a glass sliding door the home also offers a large outdoor paved entertaining area allowing for easy, large-scale entertaining across the warmer Summer months.
