This beautifully designed home is situated on a fantastic block and offers a sense of freedom and openness. Large windows and sliding doors bring in natural light and offer a practical layout. High-raked ceilings as a lovely point of difference, enhance the wall space if you're a lover of art. With a second living area, this home is perfect for couples or growing families, providing everyone with their own space. The kitchen is a delight to cook in, with ample storage and bench space. Plus, this property has a very generous backyard, plenty of space for the kids to play or for your furry family members to roam. The large outdoor dining area will make entertaining the new norm. A large space that is perfect for barbeques, games nights, or even a bar area. Being one of the larger homes in the area, you'll want to get onto this one quite quickly... Located in a wonderful neighbourhood, residents can enjoy access to playgrounds, walking and bike trails, birdlife, and nature reserves nearby. And with Blacks Beach coastline just a short distance away, cool breezes are always present. This location makes 20 Coogee Terrace an excellent choice for a family home, first home, or investment property. The potential is endless, and it is a short & easy drive to schools and shops. Don't wait, make this home yours today!
