In today's increasingly bustling towns, the allure of rural properties is steadily gaining traction. This particular property is a gem, featuring four comfortable bedrooms, two well-appointed bathrooms, a functional kitchen, and a cozy lounge with a welcoming open fireplace. Nestled on a private expanse, the property offers the convenience of town water, ample storage in the form of good shedding, an expansive and inviting deck perfect for hosting gatherings, and breathtaking, tranquil views. Additionally, the property is equipped with solar panels, ensuring that utility costs remain affordable. Located just minutes away from Churchill, Monash University, and Latrobe Regional Hospital, this private rural property is not only attractively priced but also offers a serene and idyllic lifestyle that is truly worth exploring.
