

20 Fern Street, The Basin, Vic 3154

Sold House

Saturday, 17 February 2024

20 Fern Street, The Basin, Vic 3154

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 1005 m2

Type: House

Yannie Hou
0416868512

Kobe Li
0434566941

$850,000

Nestled in the serene foothills of the Dandenong Ranges, this charming four-bedroom family home is an ideal sanctuary for first-time buyers, growing families, and savvy investors. As you step inside, the entrance welcomes you with exquisite polished hardwood floors that guide you into a wonderfully spacious family area, brimming with character and warmth, highlighted by distinctive brick walls and a cozy fireplace. At the heart of this home, a sleek and contemporary stone kitchen is adorned with high-quality appliances, abundant storage, and a generously sized, versatile island bench - perfect for meal preparation. The residence comprises four bedrooms, all equipped with built-in robes, including a luxurious master bedroom with a generous walk-in robe and a private ensuite. The classic family bathroom, complete with a bathtub, a separate toilet, and a well-appointed laundry, rounds out the interior. Step outside to your very own oasis, where you can relax and relish the array of vibrant blossoms and lush lawns from the deck. Meanwhile, the ample backyard is thoughtfully organized with a flourishing garden and a dedicated vegetable patch, making it a haven for both families and gardening enthusiasts. Additionally, its proximity to the Mountain Highway offers a convenient and easygoing lifestyle. Don't miss the incredible chance to make this lifestyle-oriented family property your own, tucked away in a peaceful enclave of the picturesque community of The Basin.