You want 'different' then look no further. 20 Fisher Street is an extraordinary home, displaying a vibrant colour palette, specifically designed to capture breezes and harbour views with virtually floor to ceiling louvre windows throughout the living areas, complemented by high ceilings and a bonus skillion roof line over the large back deck. The home presents a rare opportunity to harmoniously combine family and lifestyle by celebrating family time on the back deck looking over a vista of native trees. Located within a stones throw to the valley shopping centre, this is an ideal location for an easy stroll to the Bowls Club, or the main swimming pool. With the state high school also close by, this location is ideal. * 955m² flat block, side access to the back yard; * Highly polished hardwood flooring in all living areas with carpets in the bedrooms; * Ducted air conditioning throughout the home provides comfort to all bedrooms and living spaces; * A 6klw Solar Inverter with ability to add more solar; * Master bedroom, with WIR and ensuite; Master bedroom is positioned at the rear of the home with direct access onto the deck; * Three remaining bedrooms, with BIR's, ceiling fans and ducted air; * For the homework space, a spacious office with a built in desk is ideal for a kids study room or a reading room; * Second living room is adjacent to the three bedrooms; * Electric gate to undercover carport; Under housework space with shelving and concrete flooring; So much more to this home than your standard low set brick. The level back yard has a fire pit area, a vegetable garden and from here you can stroll along the path to the duck pond and over to the fitness trail. A perfectly located family home on the verge of the city centre, on the market with the first open house viewing on the 7th October. All enquiries to be directed to the agent.
