Come and take a look at this beautiful example of 1940s architecture and appreciate the skills of the bygone era. The home is mostly original and in excellent condition; however, a fresh interior renovation would really bring it back to life.- Tasteful stucco construction offering a unique facade and handy portico entrance- High ceilings and decorative cornices feature throughout the home- Spacious central lounge room, plus a light-filled sunroom for extra living space- The functional kitchen has electric cooking and plenty of storage and flows into the adjoining dining room- Two good size bedrooms - both with built-in wardrobes and the master with a dresser- Partially updated bathroom with new vanity, large shower and separate toilet, plus an oversized internal laundry- The level yard is partially fenced and offers mature gardens and a paved alfresco area for entertaining- Single lock-up garage, plus vehicle access into the backyard from the council reserve at the rear - an excellent option for those wanting to build a shedThis family-friendly neighbourhood is highly sought-after, and properties with this much character and in original condition rarely become available. Positioned within an easy walk to the Lismore Worker's Golf Club, St Vincent's Hospital, Wyrallah Road Public School, and Wyrallah Road Shops, you can leave your car at home most of the time. It is also only a few minutes' drive to Southern Cross University and the Lismore CBD. Contact us today to arrange your inspection.
