Immaculately presented home quietly tucked away in a family friendly neighbourhood. With four large bedrooms and an ensuite to the master, the largest of families are catered for. A spacious and modern kitchen with adjoining dining area and two separate living areas allows ample room for all. Sit quietly on the back verandah overlooking the secure rear yard or enjoy breakfast on the front verandah overlooking the parklands opposite. Additional features include ducted heating and cooling, rear yard access and double lock up garage with workshop area. Existing tenants are entering their seventh year and are extremely keen to remain in occupation at the expiration of their current lease.
