Cubic Real Estate Liverpool is thrilled to present this four-bedroom home to the market. Situated in a sought-after location, surrounded by high-quality homes, this property offers the ideal setting for a growing family. With a range of living spaces, including a formal lounge, open plan dining area, and a living area that overlooks a spacious undercover entertainment area, this home provides ample room for relaxation and enjoyment. Some notable features include a modern kitchen with gas cooking, an impressive master bedroom with an ensuite and walk-in robe, spacious living areas, a separate toilet, a double lock-up garage with internal access, and the added convenience of being close to the M5, M7, and Amity College. Additionally, the property boasts a covered pergola for entertaining and solar panels, making it both practical and environmentally friendly. The land size is approximately 495sqm, providing plenty of space for outdoor activities. Don't miss out on this fantastic opportunity!
