If you're looking for a cheap investment, then this block is for you! Situated towards the far end of town, just down the road from the National Park, this block will definitely be suited to those wanting that beachy/bushy vibe when on holidays. Although treed, the block provides a great canvas for endless amounts of ideas when planning the build of that holiday home or gives those who are just looking for a great camping block, the perfect spot to bring the camper and light the campfire! With Lake Victoria still within walking distance and all other amenities of the town within a short drive, you are never too far away from everything Loch Sport has to offer. With this property being one of the cheapest blocks on the market, this is an excellent opportunity to secure your next investment before someone else does!
