Sold by David Alvares 0410 496 995 - Hoskins Maroondah Set behind a picket fence on an easily managed garden allotment, this elegant weatherboard home is immaculately presented, showcasing abundant natural light and breathtaking Dandenong Ranges views. The entry foyer opens to an inviting living room enhanced by a crackling open fire and French doors to the entertainment deck, stepping through to a dining zone and stylish kitchen equipped with a Smeg oven/gas cooker, a breakfast bar and terrific storage space. There are 4 bedrooms in total, including the huge master bedroom with built-in robes and a sitting area, complemented by a second bedroom and a pristine bathroom. At the rear, discover a large family room with a toasty wood fire, leading upstairs to 2 additional robed bedrooms with tantalising views over the Dandenong Ranges and a stylish main bathroom. A large, covered deck is easily accessible from all the living areas, providing a wonderful place to relax and entertain in style. Finishing touches include ducted heating, split system air-conditioning, polished timber floors, a water tank, solar electricity and a double carport with an automatic roller door. In a quiet court with Mullum Mullum Creek Trail just meters away, and walking distance from Mullum Primary School and Norwood Secondary College, and minutes to reach Eastland Shopping Centre, Ringwood Train Station and EastLink for seamless access to the Mornington Peninsula.
