Period Bones with a Promising Future

Explore the excitement of 502 sqm approx GRZ1 land or explore other possibilities with this classic three bedroom, two bathroom single level timber period home. Get your thinking cap on to renovate or demolish, (Subject to Council Approval) as there is sought after bones and character in this untouched treasure. A savvy renovator will love the high ceilings, its timber floors, its clawfoot tub and its classic proportions featuring a proud entry hall, three spacious bedrooms, a central sitting room, a retro kitchen/meals area, a bright family room, a striking bathroom plus a second bathroom/laundry and French doors to a raised deck overlooking the substantial east-facing rear garden (two sheds). As a new home or development site, you'll appreciate its wide frontage, parkside position and cul de sac locale to bring out the best of this up and coming spot. On the edge of the Djerring Trail to both Carnegie and Murrumbeena shopping precincts and train stations, a light stroll to Murrumbeena Primary School, beautiful parks and Chadstone Shopping Centre for your weekend entertainment.
