Discover the perfect blend of comfort and convenience in this charming single-level home, ideally located just steps from Robina Town Centre. Featuring three spacious bedrooms, two well-appointed bathrooms, and a double lock-up garage, this home offers a practical layout for families or those seeking a streamlined lifestyle. Set on a quiet lane, the residence boasts striking timber floors and vaulted ceilings that enhance the sense of space and light. Ducted air-conditioning keeps the environment effortlessly cool, while timber shutters add a touch of privacy and style. The heart of the home is the light-filled living area, where timber bifold doors open to reveal a beautifully manicured garden and a timber deck, perfect for entertaining or quiet relaxation. With its prime location less than one kilometre from Robina Hospital and Robina Rail Station, and just 400 metres from shopping and dining at Robina Town Centre, everything you need is within easy reach. This home is a testament to low-maintenance, easy-care living without compromising on style or location. Make it yours and embrace a balanced lifestyle in Robina.
