This spacious four-bedroom family home with stunning views on two blocks offers a great lifestyle in a desirable location. Large open plan living and dining room with chef's inspired galley kitchen, four bedrooms, family bathroom, laundry, toilet, covered entertaining area, under-house storage, separate garage, and covered carport, as well as a hot house and shed make this a perfect home for a medium to large family looking to escape the city and enjoy a more relaxed lifestyle. Large windows of the dining room frame the spectacular water views, making your dining experience very special. The kitchen features a breakfast bar for three, generous bench and storage space, dishwasher, oven, cooktop, and sink. It is very functional, with hard floors, beautiful water views and plenty of natural light. The living room is spacious, with magnificent views and a charming fireplace creating a pleasant and relaxing atmosphere. All four bedrooms offer great space, suitable for a king-size bed, and are fitted with built-in robes. The family bathroom features a large shower, toilet, and vanity. This family home rests on a very gently sloping hill, with spectacular water views and great outdoor space, ideal for children, pets and/or an enthusiastic gardener. There is a hothouse here and plenty of space for garden beds, as well as a shed and covered entertaining area. The backyard receives plenty of sunshine all year round. Midway Point lies on a small peninsula with Orielton Lagoon on one side and Pitt Water on the other. It is located about 5 kilometres from Sorell, a local town where you will find great local businesses, primary school, library, and many great facilities. Midway Point is close to Hobart International Airport and approximately 20 minutes from Hobart's CBD. It is a very popular suburb for anyone looking for a relaxed lifestyle in proximity to the city.
