Have a look at this charming 1960's home on 1012m² located in a small rural town with a great community. It is considered the gateway to Wave Rock. Surrounded by other similar properties but with farming land across the road you can sit out front and take in the vista. The home has three bedrooms and a bathroom that has a bath and separate shower. A comfortable lounge has an open fire place to warm the home. Out the back is a private back patio and the yard is a blank canvas to plant out as you like. There is also a powered single garage separate to the home. This property is currently tenanted receiving a rent of $200 per week. Connected to scheme water and with a handy solar hot water system this home is awaiting your inspection.
