

20 Joseph Street, Batehaven, NSW 2536

House For Sale

Wednesday, 24 April 2024

20 Joseph Street, Batehaven, NSW 2536

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 3

Area: 556 m2

Type: House

Rebecca Shephard
0244725566

Kasia Lesniewicz
0427775374

New to Market

Step inside the delightful gem that is 20 Joseph Street, Batehaven, a newly renovated home nestled in the heart of NSW's scenic coastline. This stunning home has five bedrooms and two bathrooms, perfectly designed to accommodate first home buyers, growing families, holiday makers and savvy investors alike. Set on 556 square meters, the house instantly appeals with its immaculate, low-maintenance gardens and a secure, fully-fenced perimeter. The top level is a testament to modern living, featuring lustrous wooden floors and decor in neutral, tasteful tones that create a sense of warmth and elegance. Each of the bedrooms comes equipped with built-in robes, promising ample storage and convenience. The breathtaking part of the home, however, is the magnificent entertaining deck, accessible via the main living area, which is air-conditioned for your comfort. Here you'll find yourself captivated by the panoramic views of shimmering waters that stretch out towards Batemans Bay and beyond - a stunning backdrop for gatherings or quiet reflection. Downstairs is just as inviting, with a practical kitchenette, three bedrooms and a combined bathroom/laundry - ideal for guests or as a teenage retreat. The property also features a shed with a lean-to in the backyard, providing additional storage or workshop space. Convenience is key at this address; take a leisurely walk to fantastic restaurants, cafes, shops, and essential services such as the newsagency, post office, and healthcare providers. And let's not forget the breathtaking beaches just a stone's throw away, awaiting your footprints in their golden sands. 20 Joseph Street is more than just a house - it's a lifestyle opportunity waiting to be seized. Don't miss the chance to make it your own slice of paradise.