Live the laid-back lifestyle of your dreams in this peaceful family home nestled in the heart of Bellingham. Close to nature, cafes, renowned restaurants, and boutique shops, yet you'll feel a million miles from town. The generous layout is bright and inviting, featuring an open-plan design with ample natural light. The kitchen boasts a large wrap-around island bench leading into dining and living zones, perfect for comfortable entertaining. The living and dining areas open onto a covered timber deck overlooking the stunning backyard with a running creek. All four bedrooms are spacious, including the master with a wardrobe, ensuite. The main bathroom is a functional three-way space with a bath and separate toilet to service two bedrooms. The fourth bedroom/studio has its own toilet and sink, making it ideal for guests. The backyard is a lush private oasis bursting with life, providing ample space for kids to run free and play with nature. Just a short stroll away, you'll find The Bellingham Providore and bottle shop, the North Bellingham Medical Centre, and the North Bank Community Garden. With solar panels and a water tank, the property is not only environmentally friendly but also helps with your bills. If you've ever dreamed of having your own piece of nature in a community-first area, don't miss out. Call today to make this serene lifestyle yours.
