Step into this centrally located, double fronted 3-bedroom home, incorporating period charisma combined with a sleek design for modern day living. Built with enduring quality highlighting a weatherboard construction with character accents and polished timber floors, this residence has been a cherished home environment throughout its generations. This stunning home boasts a formal entry hallway, two large bedrooms both with built in wardrobes (one with an open fireplace), alongside another outstanding master bedroom with a built-in wardrobe and full ensuite. A formal lounge area (accompanied with original brick open fireplace) opens into a modern kitchen and meals area. The kitchen includes stone bench tops, pantry & stainless-steel appliances. At the rear of the property, you will find a spacious yard with space to entertain. Added highlights, include laundry, sparkling second central bathroom, full side drive with remote roller door, split system heating and cooling throughout, polished timber floors and high ornate ceilings. With Coburg High zoning, it's steps to popular cafes such as O'Hea's Bakery, North Coburg/Pentridge Villages, Sydney Road amenities, CBD trams, Batman Station, and multiple schools.
