Amber Werchon Presents to you 20 Pertaka Street. Nestled in the tranquil heart of Buderim, the home stands as a testament to luxurious family living. A prime piece of Queensland real estate, this immaculately presented four-bedroom house, plus study, is poised on a generous 744 square metre allotment in a serene cul-de-sac setting, ideal for families seeking both privacy and community. As you step inside this opulent residence, you're greeted by polished brushbox timber flooring that guide you through its spacious, well-appointed interiors. The modern kitchen is a chef's delight, boasting a granite benchtop, waterfall island, and a panoramic scenic outlook that makes every meal a picturesque event. The residence offers multiple living areas to cater to the needs of a growing family, each space bathed in natural light. Comfort meets style in the oversized bedrooms, featuring built-ins and ceiling fans. Main bathroom has been newly renovated with beautiful modern finishes including double vanity sinks and a freestanding bath. The master suite is a sanctuary of its own, with reverse cycle air-conditioning, ensuite, walk-in robe, and a private deck offering breathtaking city and sea views. Outside, the undercover timber deck provides a stunning vantage point overlooking the sparkling pool and manicured gardens, ensuring seamless indoor-outdoor entertainment. For added luxury, indulge in the private sauna or cosy up by the wood fireplace. This home is complete with air conditioning, solar power, two water tanks of which one has a massive capacity of 15800L, a lift that leads from the living area to the master bedroom, a large double lock-up garage with internal access, an additional single carport, and ample storage throughout. The fenced yard is perfect for pets and children's play, offering safety and security within this exclusive enclave. Situated just moments from village amenities and a mere 10-minute drive from pristine beaches, 20 Pertaka Street is a sanctuary for families seeking an exceptional lifestyle in a prestigious locale. Don't miss the opportunity to make this exquisite house your new home. To arrange a private inspection please contact Sue or Daniel.
