Positioned in the heart of the picturesque Wodonga Trees Estate, discover this exquisite family home that promises a world of potential. Whether you're an astute investor seeking to add a touch of contemporary allure or an eager homeowner looking to create a captivating space, this remarkable residence is an absolute gem not to be overlooked. This home boasts five generous bedrooms. The lower level contains four bedrooms, all featuring ceiling fans and expansive built-in wardrobes. The master suite includes a walk-in wardrobe, and an ensuite adorned with a separate shower and single vanity. The family bathroom on this level also offers a separate shower, bath, and single vanity. Ascending to the upper level reveals a myriad of possibilities—a versatile space housing the fifth bedroom and a second living area. It's a canvas of opportunities and could be suited for a teenager's private retreat, a sophisticated office nook, a vibrant games room, a welcoming guest house, or even a tranquil library and reading sanctuary. The potential is as boundless as your imagination. The heart of the home lies within its kitchen; the abundant bench space and ample storage make it an ideal setting for culinary creativity to flourish! With both a formal and informal dining space to choose from, entertaining will be a breeze. Step out from the dining area into the outdoor entertainment haven designed for year-round gatherings. Complete with a wood heater for cooler evenings and the flexibility to open or close off the room, ensuring absolute comfort for you and your guests regardless of the weather. The living area, a traditional sunken lounge, is bathed in natural light, casting a warm and inviting glow. It is the epitome of coziness, providing the perfect setting to unwind and reconnect with your loved ones after a bustling day. This is an unmissable opportunity awaiting your discovery at Poplar Street. Don't let this chance slip away.
