A family house should match the size of a growing family, and this property provides the space needed to make it your own. Superbly presented both inside and out, the home's original charms blend perfectly with contemporary enhancements, from open-plan living to a spacious kitchen. Upstairs, four well-appointed bedroom suites provide versatile choices to accommodate your family's unique dynamics, complemented by a family bathroom and laundry. The generous bedrooms unfold before the balconies, offering quiet refuge, including the main with a private ensuite. Thoughtful inclusions extend to the alfresco entertaining deck, over-sized double garage with storage, renovated bathrooms throughout, under-floor gas heating and ducted air conditioning. This is easy family living at its finest. Located in a highly sought-after area with a wealth of modern comfort and convenience on your doorstep, this home is a stand-alone showstopper.
