

20 Thornbill Street, Kingston, Tas 7050

Sold House

Monday, 14 August 2023

20 Thornbill Street, Kingston, Tas 7050

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 682 m2

Type: House

Hamish Reeve

0447118178

Contact agent

Nestled amongst quality homes, this modern residence is ideal for those looking to break into the market or have a low maintenance investment. Upon entering, the home is light filled and warm from the all-day sun beaming in through the living areas. 20 Thornbill Street offers a beautiful open plan design, ideal for those looking for a space to entertain or spend time with the whole family. The living area is expansive with an abundance of windows taking in the amazing mountain views and light. The kitchen is the stylish with an abundance of storage, quality appliances, and a breakfast bar. The area here is the social heart to the generous home showcasing the ideal floorplan making entertaining a dream and you will be the envy of friends and family. The layout is completed by the pleasing and spacious master bedroom, equipped with a walk-in robe and ensuite, the additional two bedrooms are both of good size, providing built in robes and an elegant family bathroom. Benefits continue outside with a spacious and fully fenced backyard. The space which is low maintenance, child and pet friendly has been designed to accommodate all lifestyles perfectly. This property has more than enough room for any young couple or growing family to enjoy. Foresee a perfect landing at your new home where you'll benefit from continuing suburb growth and development in a thriving community. All desirable amenities are just minutes away. Kingston's CBD precinct including Kingston Town Shopping Centre provides numerous schools, cafes and restaurants with the state of the art Kingborough Playground, Dog Park, Park Run, Kingborough Sports Centre and Twin Ovals nearby. Avoid the lengthy, stressful timeframes and costs associated with building and secure your "ready to move in now" home today. Located close to public transport with the convenience of Hobart City an easy 15km (approx.) commute. If you want a low maintenance home where you can add your own touches without breaking the budget, then this is a must inspect home. I can assure you it will tick all your needs and wants. The pictures only capture a small piece of this amazing package.