With stunning city views and sunsets that impress, this internal block is situated next to the original farmhouse of drivers run with the DA Approved residence mirroring the original barns adjacent to the property. Comprising of around 2.8 acres, unique private & quiet sums up this block of land with the proposed 4 bedroom, 2 bathroom residence designed that it could be completed in a 1 or 2 stage build. Providing flexibility for the prospective purchasers being an added bonus. This block certainly stands out within the estate as it is situated down a private internal drive-way with already established neighbouring homes. The property also offers fantastic views over the neighbouring Dam and Launceston City. Located approximately 16 minutes from the Launceston CBD and around 20 minutes from Launceston Airport. This is an area that seamlessly combines tranquility of the rural surroundings with the added convenience of city amenities only moments away. Feel free to contact us today for further information.
