Nestled within one of Carnegie's most favourable locations, this rare to find property offers privacy and security at every angle. Adored for just under two decades, this ready to move and live in as its property enjoys its own private driveway, 3 well sized bedrooms home presents endless possibilities and is a true testament to its original build quality. Upon entering, you'll be greeted by an entrance hall leading down to a spacious and bright living area, seamlessly extending to the splendid low maintenance courtyard. The kitchen showcases quality cabinetry adorned with an expansive dining area, featuring beautiful laminate flooring, ducted heating and air conditioning. Three well-proportioned bedrooms all equipped with built-in robes. An updated bathroom and a conveniently-sized laundry with a second toilet offering practicality and convenience. The low-maintenance west-facing courtyard provides an ideal setting for basking in the sunlight and entertaining family and friends. With a front yard to enjoy nature, a single garage and off street parking, contributing to the overall comfort of this home. Situated in the heart of Carnegie, the unbeatable location allows for an east walk to Carnegie Primary School, Koornang Road's fresh food grocers, diverse eateries, Koornang Park, bus services and Carnegie train station. This immaculate home is a rare find, requiring nothing more than to be moved into and enjoyed.
