Welcome to your potential new home in the sought-after "old" Ocean Grove location! This solid brick home is set on an attractive flat 706m² block, offering endless opportunities for redevelopment (STCA), extension, renovation, or just moving in. With three well-proportioned bedrooms, ample storage, and the master bedroom located at the back of the property with pretty garden views and access to an ensuite, this home has everything you need. The two separate living spaces provide plenty of room for family and friends to relax and unwind. The main living area is situated at the front of the home and overlooks the front garden, including a dining area with access to the back garden. The kitchen and bathroom have some funky original 1970's tiling and back in vogue arch ways, adding character and charm to the home. Located close to lots of conveniences, including the town's amazing sporting facilities, the Bellarine Aquatic centre, skate park, football fields, soccer pitches, netball, and tennis courts, the kids and sports lovers will be well catered for. An easy bike ride away are two primary schools, child and day care facilities. Also close by are two supermarkets, the convenience of Madeley Street shops, and the famous "Mex" restaurant. This is an ideal foot into the housing market in a popular area of town. Watch your possibilities grow by inspecting now. This sturdy brick beauty won't last long.
