Situated in a first-class location of Yarra parklands, a stones-throw from the local primary and easy access to elite schools in Kew & Ivanhoe, Alphington Station and Fairfield Village is this charming five bedroom, three bathroom family home. With its fabulous leadlight entry, high ceilings and graceful proportions, this home features a sophisticated formal living/study space with beautiful open fireplace, two double sized bedrooms with storage at the front, serviced by a very generous central bathroom with bath and a separate shower. Off the main living zone you will find the third bedroom plus second study. The expansive open plan kitchen/living/dining zone flooded with natural light and beautiful greenery from the tranquil and picturesque rear garden. Tucked at the rear of the property is the full master suite with dressing room/ walk in robe, ensuite bathroom and peaceful view of the private leafy back yard. A gorgeous provincial style kitchen incorporating loads of storage, quality fitted appliances including gas cooking and dishwasher, as well as appliance hutch and a separate breakfast bar and bench seat to enjoy your morning coffee! Other features include a separate laundry, ducted heating and cooling throughout, off street parking for three cars and an additional loft bedroom and ensuite above the garage, perfect for a retreat or work from home space. This property is sure to accommodate every stage of family living with its versatile floor plan and right opposite Alphington Park and Yarra bushland reserve. Note: Rear garden shed is not included, and property can come furnished or partly furnished.
