Welcome to this charming 3-bedroom brick veneer home. Ideally situated in a prime location, nestled within close proximity of the beach, the town centre, one of the local milk bars, pharmacy, laundromat, schools, and a childcare centre, having a bus stop right at your doorstep, commuting couldn't be easier. The interior features a seamless fusion of connected living and dining spaces, creating an inviting atmosphere for both relaxation and entertainment. All three bedrooms come complete with built-in wardrobes, ensuring ample storage space. The bathroom has been recently renovated and is equipped for special needs use. The home is situated on a generous 994 square meter block, offering ample outdoor space for various activities and possible future expansion. Additional features include a single-car garage with a workshop/storage area at the rear.
