Enjoying a quiet address along tree-lined Haig Street, yet ideally located in the cosmopolitan heart of Southbank, this generous sized apartment captures a sought-after inner city lifestyle. Perched upon Level 20 of an ultra-modern security block, it showcases immaculate interiors dressed in premium appointments and a large entertaining balcony with a dramatic CBD backdrop. An ideal first home or an investment opportunity, this stylish abode has excellent residents' facilities and is conveniently positioned steps from Crown Casino, a supermarket and city trams. In addition, it is close to Southbank restaurants, South Melbourne Market and Southern Cross Station. The entrance leads directly into the living and dining area, flooded in light through full height windows. Beyond a sliding glass door is the covered balcony with ample room for an outdoor setting with amazing views! Finished in CaesarStone, the sleek integrated kitchen incorporates premium appliances including a gas cooktop and microwave. Nearby is a queen sized bedroom with mirrored built-ins and a study nook, and the pristine bathroom. Features include a European laundry, split system air-conditioning, high ceilings, minimalist tones, and double glazing. Beyond its marble foyer, the building provides video intercom security, a Building Manager and Concierge, internal lift access and an indoor swimming pool
