The Marella Apartments at Fletcher's Slip are nestled idyllically between the white sands and blue waters of Semaphore Beach and the charm and history of old Port Adelaide. Marella residents can enjoy direct access to regenerated slips and the riverfront promenade, perfect for walking and running, or to launch your paddle board or kayak. All apartments experience ample space and natural light, with an open plan living and dining seamlessly transitioning to a private outdoor terrace or balcony. Apartment 201 offers a West facing two-bedroom, two-bathroom home with sliding doors to your spacious balcony, creating the perfect indoor-outdoor living space. The Marella Apartments are architecturally designed, ensuring residents will love not only the location, but all the personal touches you desire including a choice in colour scheme and optional upgrades. Secure your dream apartment today with a fixed price contract and only a 10% deposit required on contract signing, remaining balance is then payable on settlement. Discover some of the features you can expect from your Marella Apartment:
