Such light and openness greets you when you step inside this chic contemporary apartment, which is located in the heart of the lively Glenhuntly Road shopping strip, mere steps from trains and trams and extra convenient to Monash Uni (Caulfield), buses, recreation, primary schools and reserves. Security is a prime consideration, with video intercom entry and secure parking. There is lift access to this front, 2nd floor apartment where the décor is fresh and bright and where a sleek Caesarstone and stainless steel Bosch kitchen is part of a living room (with reverse-cycle A/C) that opens out to a balcony offering plenty of space for a BBQ. Choose either of the 2 bedrooms as the master bedroom. Both have mirror-fronted BIRs. Bedroom 1 directly accesses the front balcony, while bedroom 2 accesses a compact private balcony. A Euro laundry and a thoroughly modern bathroom complete the picture. We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
