Sleek contemporary finishes and a seamless indoor-outdoor flow are the hallmarks of this modern apartment's success. Situated steps from bus transport, Stradbroke Park, Kew High School, several shopping precincts all nearby and proximity to the Eastern Freeway, this is a stylish, sun-filled, and central abode. The interior of this exquisite apartment boasts a beautiful open concept design with quality wide-plank flooring flowing through the living area and gourmet kitchen with gas cooktop and impressive waterfall edge peninsula. A wall of double-glazed glass ensures a quiet atmosphere and leads out to the wrap-around balcony with clear balustrade for unobstructed views of the leafy local surrounds. Equal consideration has been paid to providing optimal comfort in the bedrooms. Privately situated from each other, the secondary bedroom features a built-in robe and balcony access, while the primary bedroom with stylish rain shower ensuite resides at the other end of the unit. The central bathroom and smart European laundry are finished to an exacting standard. With additional highlights including split system heating/cooling, secure entry, single garage parking space, and a storage cage, this property sets the benchmark for brilliant apartment living. Promising to impress, prompt inspection is advised. Plan your viewing today.
