Already rewarding due to its great location, this fully furnished light filled one bedroom apartment provides a superb lifestyle enhanced by quality decor and facilities that the popular Society building has to offer. Amazing North facing aspects ensure abundant direct sunlight and complements a living/dining area featuring reverse cycle heating/cooling, a Caesar-stone kitchen with stainless steel appliances and dishwasher. An oversized balcony with large floor to ceiling windows offers lovely spacious views to the quiet inner courtyard garden, and the tastefully decorated light interior conveys a sense of calm and appeal. The central bathroom has been fitted with evident designer flair and illustrates the beauty of capturing modern spaces. Other features include an on site gym, communal rooftop BBQ and entertainment area with hot tubs offering stunning bay and city views, 24 hour security and day-time concierge, communal courtyard garden, TV lounge and table tennis area, and a thriving and supportive resident's community and networking events. Not to mention the iconic Chapel Street at your doorstep with Melbourne's best cafes, parks and attractions in every direction. Just bring your suitcase!
