This unbeatable location offers more time for residents to enjoy the Brunswick lifestyle. A coffee at Code Black. A beer and a live gig at Spotted Mallard or the Union Hotel. Barkly Square, with its supermarkets and fresh food stalls is less than 200 metres from Black St and the Sydney Rd retail precinct is adjacent. With the city just a short train or tram ride away via Jewel station or Sydney Rd trams enjoy everything eclectic Brunswick has to offer, you will be spoilt in this fabulous location. This development speaks to the old industrial soul of Brunswick. The interiors are exclusive and architecturally-considered with unobstructed views of the city over the vast parkland of Princes Park and Royal Park as well as a 270 degree vista over the entire city of Moreland. Generously proportioned, they exude quality in fittings and finishes, while at the same time offering energy efficient and acoustic design elements throughout. With only 2 apartments on each floor, this boutique apartment features modern open-plan living with gas cooking, dishwasher and lots of bench space. Bedrooms are spacious with BIRs, the bathroom boast large walk-in showers and concealed laundry facilities. With intercom, stacker car space for 1 car plus storage cages, this is great value on offer.
