This stunning apartment resides in the award-winning residential masterpiece, Vue on King William. Known for its striking all-glass exterior design, it gives its residents unparalleled views of Adelaide Hills, Adelaide City and parklands extending to the picturesque coastline. Situated on the twentieth floor, this 2 bedroom apartment opens to a spacious open-plan living area thoughtfully designed to maximize natural light. The living space seamlessly opens to a west-facing balcony, providing breath taking panoramic city and coastal views. The sleek kitchen is complete with stone benchtops, a gas cooktop and dishwasher, complemented by an adjacent laundry and pantry. The two bedrooms come with built-in robes and large windows, offering continuous views of the surroundings. Additional features include a split system air conditioner, secure parking for one car, swipe access and video intercom for peace of mind. Residents of Vue on King William also have access to a stunning entertaining deck, complete with a luxurious swimming pool, outdoor cooking and dining amenities and a state-of-the-art recreational gym. With the vibrant city of Adelaide at your doorstep, this apartment embodies the epitome of convenience. Access some of Adelaide's premier fine dining and bars, all within minutes. The convenience of the tram allows you to effortlessly explore the city, or relax on the beach at Glenelg, or indulge in a day of shopping in the city centre. Essential service, including groceries, are within easy reach, with Adelaide's renowned Central Markets providing fresh produce close by. For fitness, sporting activities and connection with nature, the Southern Parklands is within walking distance along with the stunning Veale Gardens. What we love:
