Positioned in the heart of Newport boasts this two bedroom two bathroom apartment perfect for those looking to downsize or invest. Enjoy City views from the balcony. As you enter the home, the hardwood floors guide you through to the light filled open plan living! The kitchen is perfectly appointed, with features such as Stone benchtops, stainless steel appliances and sleek tiled splash back. Adjacent to the space is the large living and dining that overlooks the generous sized balcony that is a great place for entertaining family and friends. Adding further appeal is the two bedrooms that both feature built-in wardrobes, one with its own private ensuite, the other having access to the large central bathroom! Additional features include ample storage throughout, one secure parking space with cage storage, European laundry and heating/cooling. Not only is this property situated in an ideal location, but it is also only a stone throw away from Newport Train Station, Mason and Hall street shops and cafes and a short drive to Williamstown along with easy access to the freeway.
