A well priced vacant land at this advertised price will not last. Perth house prices are on track to rise faster than any other Australian capital city in 2021, thanks to a strong economy, a tight rental market and the state's response to COVID-19, according to property experts. This is a golden time for you build your dream home in the well established suburb "Gosnells". Contact Cedric Ng 0411 728 766 should you need more information.
