Step into the refined world of Miya, presented by Harris Leech, where sophistication meets convenience in a boutique design complex adorned with impeccable finishes. Situated just moments away from Brunswick Street, this exclusive enclave offers a lifestyle of unparalleled ease and indulgence. From vibrant cafes and bars to seamless public transport options and lush green parks, everything you desire is within arm's reach. Delight your palate at Mateo's or Culter & Co., unwind at unique haunts like Naked for Satan and Little Creatures, or savor artisanal brews at Industry Beans, all mere steps from your doorstep. At Miya, the art of living is perfected through architectural brilliance, where the central living space seamlessly transitions onto a tiled terrace balcony, blurring the boundaries between indoor and outdoor entertaining. The kitchen is a masterpiece of design, boasting luxurious marble countertops, ample cabinetry storage, and high-end Neff stainless steel appliances. Your sanctuary awaits in the well-appointed bedroom, complete with built-in wardrobes, an elegant bathroom, a dedicated study area, and convenient laundry facilities. Enjoy year-round comfort with heating and air conditioning throughout, and immerse yourself in the tranquility of the Japanese Gardens, a serene oasis nestled within the complex. With secure basement parking, proximity to transport links, and enchanting outdoor spaces, Miya sets a new standard for urban luxury living in the heart of Brunswick Street's vibrant tapestry.
