Enjoy North-facing views from the balcony, unwind in stylish interiors, or venture out to explore everything within easy reach: This contemporary two-bedroom apartment offers effortless living. Boasting a kitchen/meals/living area adorned with stone countertops and SMEG appliances - including an integrated dishwasher - the residence seamlessly transitions to the covered balcony. Perfect for intimate dinners while gazing at the sparkling city lights to the north, the interior features double-glazed windows for added tranquility. Each bedroom, complete with built-in robes, is complemented by a chic bathroom featuring a rainfall shower, and there's a convenient separate laundry. With a secure entrance featuring video intercom, elevator access, heating/air conditioning, and off-street parking, all the essentials for modern living are covered. Situated in the sought-after Northcote High School zone, this property is ideally located within walking distance to trams, trains, schools, cafes, Merri Creek Trail, and bustling High Street, offering quick access to the city center.
