Met with a welcoming picture perfect façade, this idyllic home draws you in and invites you to stay. Built around rambling gardens that provide abundant light and delightful vistas throughout, this expansive residence offers versatility with its multiple living zones plus an office on 1437 sqm of land approx. Together with a convenient location that's peaceful, it's easy to love this beauty from front to back for many years to come while it evolves with the changing needs of your family. Timeless and tasteful, the home boasts formal living and dining with open fireplace through to a family room overlooked by a quality kitchen of wood and granite that's appointed with a full suite of Miele appliances (900mm gas cooking, oven and dishwasher). Easily separated yet seamlessly connected, a master suite hosts a lounge with its own entrance and full bar, a brilliant office, ensuite with walk in rainfall shower and a bedroom with an awe inspiring garden view to wake to. Spill out from any of these zones and bask in the northern gardens, lovingly tended and zoned for entertaining while watching the kids run around the open spaces lined with low maintenance plantings. This extensive house also features three further robed bedrooms, one with an ensuite, and the others served by a large central bathroom with spa, laundry with drying cupboard, double auto garage with internal access and yard access through to an additional freestanding 240v workshop, shed and carport. Modern conveniences also include zoned gas ducted heating and zoned refrigerated cooling, intercom, alarm, ducted vacuum and electric awnings to kitchen and outdoor entertaining. In a pocket that's both far enough and close enough to offer peace and convenience, it's a quick walk to Miss Lucy for your morning coffee on the way to the popular Blackburn Lake Sanctuary and walking trails. Also within easy reach of bus options, Nunawading train, village and library as well as Forest Hill Chase, Blackburn Lake Primary School and Mullauna Secondary College. We donate a portion of our fee from every property transaction to the Woodards Foundation to support people experiencing homelessness, family violence and social isolation.
