You will be impressed by this contemporary apartment located only a short distance to the new Footscray Hospital. Here you will find a charming 2-bedroom haven. This delightful property offers an open plan living area that adjoins an efficient kitchen ready for your culinary adventures, and a private balcony perfect for quiet moments. There is also a secure underground carpark. Whether you're starting your homeownership journey, seeking a more manageable space, or considering an investment, this property has a lot to offer. Convenience is at your doorstep, with the currently being developed Footscray Hospital, local cafes, restaurants, and schools just a short stroll away. While this home may benefit from a touch of personalisation and care, it holds immense potential. With a bit of love and creativity, you can transform this space into a cozy sanctuary that reflects your unique style. This property embodies the promise of a comfortable and modest urban lifestyle, waiting for you to make it your own.
