A warm welcome awaits you at Oasis Peakhurst, a brand new retirement community in South Sydney. Designed by famed architect Angelo Candelapas, this stunning apartment offers all the features you would expect to help you age more gracefully. The cook's kitchen has an abundance of storage and bench space, along with Fisher and Paykel appliances. Combined with a cleverly designed pull out pantry, this kitchen is designed for minimal bending. The bathrooms combine easy height facilities and cabinetry along with discreet mobility assistance. This beautifully appointed apartment is definitely one to inspect. Lift access direct from lock up garage to your front door completes the picture.
