An amazing 1 bedroom, 1 bathroom, 1 car space, 1 storage cage apartment that is fresh, modern and stylish in Caulfield South. With an interior area of approx 55sqm, this light filled apartment is generously fitted with extra storage areas. Securely located in a boutique block, this stylishly appointed second floor apartment offers everything you need for a quality lifestyle matched by an ultra convenient location. Open your front door to a light filled and spacious apartment with open plan living allowing an abundance of natural light. To your left is a full sized kitchen with stone bench tops, stainless steel and integrated appliances. To your right is your main bathroom which is sleek, stylish and functional featuring a large shower and European Laundry and also a separate powder room. Relax in comfort and style from your living room that opens out onto your own private balcony. The oversized bedroom has a great amount of storage - mirrored built in robes - you also can access the balcony from here as well. With brand new chevron timber flooring throughout, skylights, intercom entry, split system heating and cooling this apartment has it all. Situated in a superb location, moments from vibrant Glenhuntly Road with shops, parks, schools, public transport all within walking distance, this is an ideal first home or investment. Please contact Joanne Arbid on 0413 555 891 if you are interested in this property.
