A recipe for outstanding lifestyle success and immense family pleasure, this charismatic residence sits proudly on the corner of Stradbroke Street. Nestled behind high fencing for absolute privacy and embraced by a stunning lush-green garden landscape, there are two marvellous living zones that both seamlessly extend out to the relaxing under-cover and open deck. During the cooler months, your friends will gather around the gorgeous open fireplace in the lounge room while in summer, French doors provide that desirable indoor/outdoor flow. Generously designed, the open-plan dining and family room showcases a wall of bi-folds for inspired alfresco entertaining. Dressed in black stone and black glass, the crisp white cabinetry in the gourmet kitchen is matched with premium stainless-steel appliances. Boasting three bedrooms, there are two elegant bathrooms including one with a clawfoot tub. Sitting separately, there's a studio with a living room, bedroom and bathroom; ideal for teens or extended family. Comfortable throughout, highlights include ducted heating, a split system air-conditioner, polished floorboards, security, excellent storage, a tandem carport and a separate single carport. Metres from Huntingdale train station, village eateries, the primary school and the golf club, live near Monash Medical Centre, the Children's Hospital, Monash University, Chadstone and M-City Shopping Centre.
