Perched above the hustle and bustle, this north facing home has been designed by SJB Architects and finished in an industrial style with exposed concrete ceilings and robust black trims tastefully offset by warm Oak floors. Instantly welcomed by a skyline view, the home comprises an open plan living room that opens onto a full width balcony. A sleek kitchen with black stone bench, stainless steel open shelving and integrated lighting is appointed with gas cooking, dish drawer and terrific storage. A double bedroom with wall of mirrored robes is served by a stylishly simple bathroom with a big walk in shower and floating vanity. The home also features a concealed Euro laundry, RC AC and secure video intercom entry. Perfectly positioned for a quick stroll to Chapel street cafes, the iconic Jam Factory entertainment complex, Prahran fresh food market, train, tram options and parklands
