Positioned in the heart of Newport boasts this two-bedroom/two-bathroom apartment with stunning views of the Melbourne CBD perfect for those looking to downsize or invest. As you enter, the hardwood floors guide you through to the light-filled open-plan living kitchen and dining! Your eyes are immediately drawn to the uninterrupted views of the City. The kitchen is perfectly appointed, with features such as Stone benchtops, stainless steel appliances, and a sleek tiled splashback. A generous-sized balcony that is a great place for entertaining family and friends. Adding further appeal are the two bedrooms that both feature built-in wardrobes and share the large central bathroom! Additional features include ample storage throughout, one secure parking space with cage storage, separate laundry (not European), and heating/cooling. Not only is this property situated in an ideal location, but it is also only a stone throw away from Newport Train Station, Mason and Hall street shops and cafes and a short drive to Williamstown along with easy access to the freeway.
