Highlighted by sensational living and entertainment areas, this beautifully renovated Victorian-era residence showcases a custom-design that provides a modern family lifestyle of quality and versatility. It promises to deliver space, light and privacy for those who love to relax, play and live in easy style, with a low-maintenance indoor-outdoor layout on a great-sized garden block. All of this is perfectly complemented by a highly sought-after Stanmore neighbourhood that has the train station, local cafes, Newington College and Stanmore's popular cafe and eatery precinct within a stroll. A well-designed layout with an airy and open planned living space. Oversized garage with self-contained studio accessed from the rear. Showpiece contemporary kitchen with island bar and high-end fittings. Three upstairs bedrooms include a main with ensuite and lacework balcony. Separate formal lounge and dining rooms with original marble fireplaces. Ducted air-conditioning and hardwood flooring.
