Eco by Mosaic offers architect-designed iconic apartments. The interior design features an open living space with high ceilings and a gourmet style gallery kitchen, including stone benchtops and European appliances. Natural light abounds with space-enhancing full height sliding doors opening to a generous and private balcony. The highly thoughtful layout provides a clear separation between the bedroom and bathroom resulting in maximum privacy and dual living appeal. Storage has not been neglected, with a generous built-in wardrobe, together with additional linen and storage space. Features Include:

- One bedroom apartment
- Air conditioning in lounge room and bedroom
- Fan in bedroom
- Open plan layout with ample living, dining and outdoor entertaining area
- Gourmet kitchen with stainless steel appliances, stone benchtop and European appliances as well as an induction cooktop, integrated dishwasher and European tapware
- Security entry with intercom access
- Secure car park space
- Internal laundry with included dryer
- Large balcony
- Small pets considered upon application

Latimer Street, bordering Greenslopes, is a quiet street in the Brisbane suburb of Holland Park. Handy to a range of essential services: shops, restaurants, specialty stores, gyms, banks, hotels, a variety of highly regarded schools and childcare centres, the southern city fringe central business district, sporting facilities, two universities and two Westfield shopping centres.
