Located in Melbourne's historic 'Foundry' building, 207/399 Bourke Street Melbourne offers the perfect CBD hub for you to enjoy city living with ease. As soon as you open your door, you are offered an abundance of sunshine filling your open and wide living space. Your lounge features tall ceilings, crisp white walls, softly carpeted flooring, endless storage space, a refreshing balcony view and furniture. To your right you will notice your modern, fully-equipped kitchen featuring a fridge, microwave and gas cooktop. Continuing through your property, you will stumble upon your beautifully presented bathroom with clean wall and floor tiles. All appliances are modern making it impossible not to feel clean and cosy in this beautiful CBD hub. Perfectly positioned, this property is only minutes walk to the best cafes, bars and restaurants, public transport, Flagstaff Gardens, Queen Victoria Market and Southbank and RMIT University. Other welcomed additions are a secure fob entry, heating and intercom. This is inner city living at its finest.
