

208 Mccullough Street, Frenchville, Qld 4701

House For Sale

Thursday, 14 March 2024

208 Mccullough Street, Frenchville, Qld 4701

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 3

Area: 643 m2

Type: House

Tyson Payne
0439900795

Offers over $699,000

Welcome to 208 McCullough Street, located in a very desirable Frenchville pocket. This impressive property boasts a grand appearance and ample size, featuring either five bedrooms and two living areas, or the possibility of being utilised as four bedrooms with three living areas. It provides plenty of room for the family to grow. The home has recently undergone extensive renovations inside to create a very modern and elegant residence. The Kitchen has been completely remodeled creating an open plan living dining room. Featuring an abundance of storage and a vantage point overlooking the pool, it provides both functionality and style, allowing you to keep a watchful eye on the little ones while preparing meals. The bedrooms are all generously proportioned, offering king-size comfort and the majority are equipped with built-in wardrobes and adorned with plantation shutters. This property also offers the convenience of two bathrooms, one featuring a shower and bath combination, accompanied by two separate toilets for added comfort. Outside, you'll find a generously sized fully fenced backyard, complemented by a covered entertainment area. Adding to the appeal is the stunning Van Nunen pool, complete with an additional kids' pool. Built to last, this sturdy home features steel frames and includes desirable amenities such as air conditioning, fresh paint, new downlights and flooring throughout. Additionally, it boasts an electric roller garage door for secure parking, accommodating up to three vehicles undercover, alongside an automated sprinkler system. Seize the chance to make this remarkable family home yours. Don't hesitate-call me today at 0439 900 795 to schedule your private inspection.