Situated in the small country town of Guyra, stands a quaint weatherboard cottage brimming with potential. The home features a large northeast facing living area with wood heating. A generous updated kitchen and three sizable bedrooms. The master bedroom is light filled and features a walk-in dressing room. New flooring and paintwork throughout means the home is ready to move straight in and enjoy. The combined bathroom and laundry creates a clever use of space while the mudroom is an added bonus to the rear of the home. The large elevated 1012sqm block is fully fenced and has a single lock-up garage, the space opens to a world of opportunity. First home buyers and investors, this property is one not to miss.
